"Future Focused, Resilient & Innovative"

Celebrating
years

Last Friday, we had the amazing and talented Ellie from "Silk and Silhouette" visit our school to perform, expose and develop our students' skills in performing circus arts. The students were involved in plate spinning, juggling, pyramid building, hula hoops, throwing and tumbling. It was an extremely enjoyable day and we would like to thank Ellie for giving our students this wonderful opportunity.

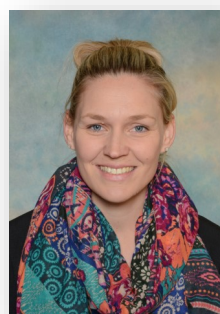

This Thursday, the Variety Bash participants and organisers will be visiting our school for breakfast. We are feeling incredibly fortunate to have their support and appreciative of their donation towards new classroom furniture for the K/1 room. The "Bashers" will be at school from 7am to 9am, students and their families are welcome to come to school earlier and meet these amazing people.

Tomorrow our school will participate in the National Simultaneous Story Time at 11 am. Mrs Low will be reading the book 'Alpacas with Maracas' to the whole school in the Library. Events like this help promote the value of reading, literacy and a love for books, which all children should have.

Have a wonderful week!
